To the Lovers of Art in Photography.

Having moved to my new gallery, over 701 and 703, Austin street, (the old Hinchman Building), I am now better prepared than ever to give the people of Waco the finest Photos in the state. The beautiful "aristo" (as highly endorsed by the leading galleries,) in all its beauty, at my studio I will have on exhibition for a few days, an elegant oil portrait of Mrs. Geo. Clark, by Mons. De Gissac, who has been framed in a very handsome "Florentine" frame, making a portrait well worth a visit, to all and more especially to the ladies.

I will be glad to welcome my old, and many new customers. Don't forget my new address, over 701 and 703, Austin Ave.

Respectfully,
DEANE, Photographer.

Go to the Clark club meeting to-night.

The people of Waco are going to turn out en masse tonight at the court house.

Today is stray sale day and the plaza is covered with horse dealers and auctioneers.

The leak which has been keeping the post office corner wet for so long is being repaired today.

We call your attention to A. C. Sneed's advertisement on first page of this paper headed FREE.

Ex-policeman Al Moore has already secured a lucrative position with the Waco Trading company in which, he states, he will make more money than he did as policeman.

The little child of Phillip Hang which was so badly scalded about a week ago is still very low and doubts are entertained as to its recovery. Its burns are much worse than was at first thought.

Great enthusiasm is evinced in Waco, over the Cameron debate to-morrow and the special train of twelve coaches will undoubtedly be filled. The meeting tonight at the court house will be a rousing one.

There was no preaching at the Austin Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday. In the absence from the city of Rev. J. C. J. King, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Hughes was to have occupied the pulpit, but on account of illness was unable to do so.

The alarm of fire turned on yesterday afternoon was caused by an awning on the First National bank building catching fire from a cigarette or match thrown from one of the upper windows. Beyond the cost of the awning no damage was done.

The State Typographical Union will meet in this city May 25. The delegates elected yesterday by Waco Typographical Union No. 188 are Messrs. J. S. England and P. A. Richards. Extensive arrangements are being made to entertain the boys in grand style.

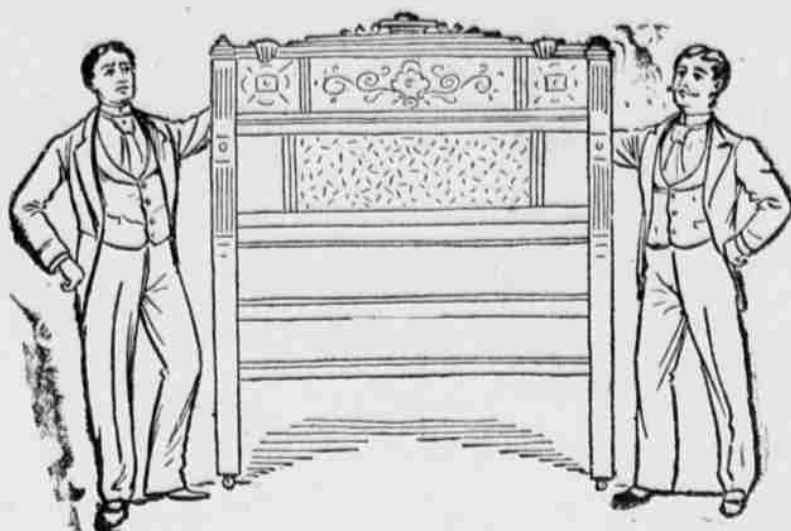

Mr. Sullivan, chairman of the invitation committee for the meeting next month, has received a letter from Mr. W. F. Flanagan, president of the Southern Nation bank, of New York, stating that unless some unforeseen accident arises he will attend the meeting of the Texas association.

Mr. J. H. Shope, the popular Third street grocer, returned yesterday from an enjoyable camp hunt of several weeks duration east of Navasota. He states that lots of game was killed and fish caught by the party and that he was having a good time generally till a few days ago when he received a letter informing him of the death of his favorite horse, the fine spotted colt. This ended the hunt so far as he was concerned, and he hastened home.

Tonight Miss Rose will give another of her splendid piano recitals at Goggan's music hall. The programme consists of selections from Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Chopin and other great masters. Mr. James Renick, Waco's talented young violinist, will assist Miss Rose.

The great sample sale in shoes at Hilt & Co's. was in every way a success. During the three days Messrs. Connor and Tucker, with their assistants, were kept busy. In point of numbers of pairs of shoes sold, their sales run up in the hundreds. Every twentieth pair was given away.

See Charley Hobson's advertisement in another column. You no doubt have made up your mind to have a fan or probably several fans. You can't do as well even at the factory as you can at the Waco Electric Supply company's office. Reliable, trustworthy and fair dealing in all things you will find in C. W. Hobson, manager.

Wrapped in a Poisonous Veil!

In the mists that we see rising from the shores of sluggish streams, from low lands soaked by freshets or from marshy muddy flats on the outskirts of populous cities, lurk disease and death. Lurked in this poisonous veil of mist are isolated business structures, manufacturing villages and humble tenements. For those who either from motives of business interest or dire necessity are daily constrained to breathe this envenomed atmosphere, there is no immunity save in an efficient medicinal safeguard. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters fully fills the need, protecting whole communities from the insidious attacks of malaria, a disease which in its more malignant forms is scarcely less to be dreaded in the individual than typhus. Every type of it is thoroughly eradicated by the Bitters. This peerless medicine also remedies dyspepsia, constipation, liver and kidney trouble, rheumatism and nervousness. 'Tis a restorative, too, of appetite, sleep and flesh.
